ST. MONICA PRAYER: O God, You are the comfort of those who mourn, and the Savior of all who trust in You. Blessed Monica's loving tears moved You to convert her son, Augustine. Help us, who pray to You for the salvation of our sons and daughters, too. May we also grieve our sins, and win the grace of Your pardon, through the intercession of this loving saint, through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

John Paul II: Man cannot live without love. He remains a being that is incomprehensible to himself, his life is senseless, if love is not revealed to him, if he does not encounter love, if he does not experience it and make it his own, if he does not participate intimately in it. It is Christ the Redeemer who fully reveals man to himself.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

The fact that we are God's actual children changes everything in human history. Studying ancient mythologies is fascinating, with such a variety of gods, demigods, monsters, and creatures. But nowhere in those stories does any mere mortal proclaim the intimate goodness of God who parents all of humanity with tender, unchanging love. Deuteronomy seizes on this astonishing attentiveness of God, asking, "Did anything so great ever happen before? Was it ever heard of?"

The people of God must answer, "No, never!" God, the one and only true God, has transformed all of human history by choosing us as beloved children. And though we have broken every promise ever made, God has remained faithful to our covenant. God shows us how to keep faith with one another in deep, abiding love.

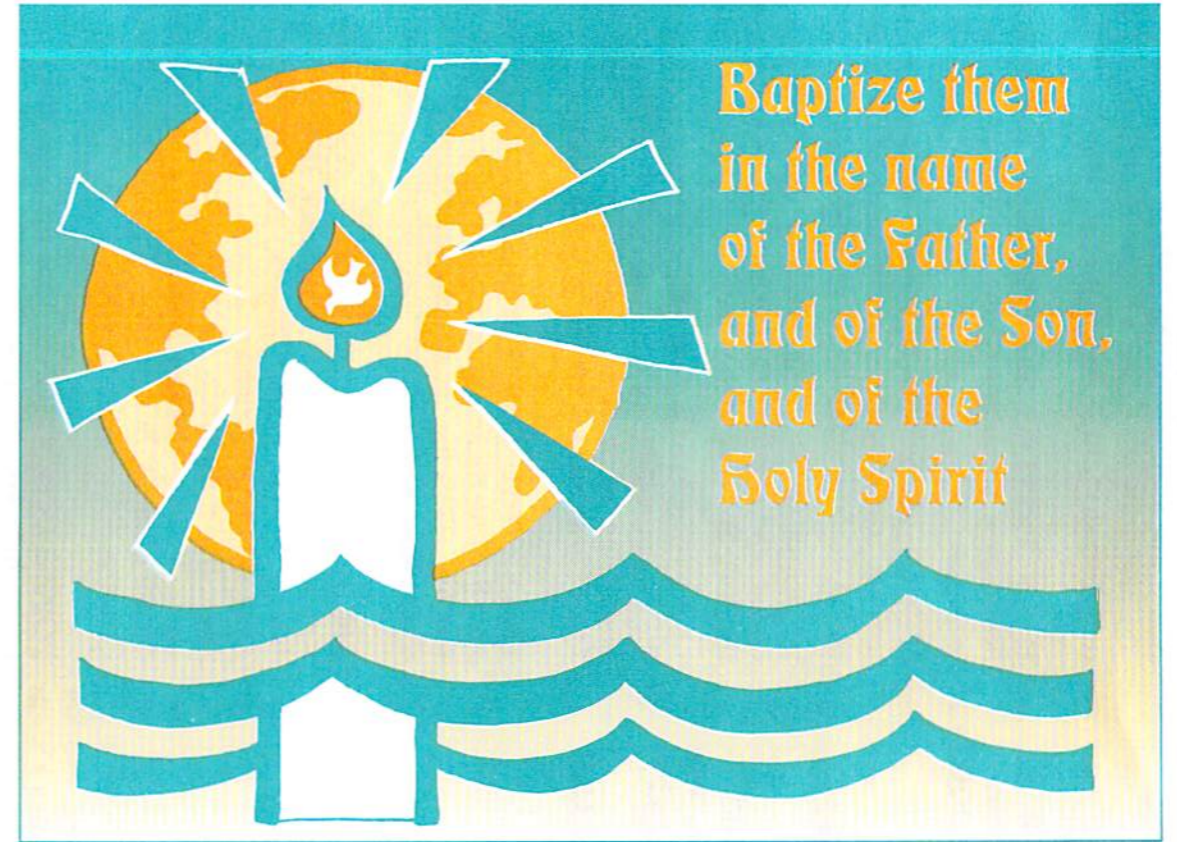

Many of us carry wounds from experiences of unfaithfulness and selfishness. As a people, we are not consistently good at loving each other in the way that God loves us. Each one of us knows the savage pain of indifference or betrayal. Many of us have inflicted pain on others. Even so, God loves us. God's faithfulness encourages us to try again, to love more selflessly.

ONGOING SALVATION

God rejoices when we refresh ourselves in God's love and rededicate our lives to holiness. Broken as we are, the Lord wants our help to save the world. Jesus saved the world once and for all, of course, through his cross and resurrection. But the work of God's salvation continues as God provides the grace for each human person to work toward healthy relationships with God and others. This work goes on until the end of time, and the Lord wants our help. This is what it means to be a disciple of Christ in the new evangelization: We must ask for the grace to live in Jesus, refreshing others with his love.

Today's Readings: Dt 4:32-34, 39-40; Ps 33:4-5, 6, 9, 18-19, 20, 22; Rom 8:14-17; Mt 28:16-20

May 27, 2018 • Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Praise God! We belong to God's church, which points us to heaven while also embracing our human condition. In today's Gospel, Jesus sends his disciples out to baptize all people in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Baptism washes us clean spiritually, but also refreshes us physically. Think of the dirtiest you have ever been—drenched in sweat, covered in dirt, or long unbathed for some reason. Then recall how invigorating it felt to wash in running water. This physical experience of refreshing water reminds us of God's power to renew us, body and soul. In baptism we become part of God's family, as Saint Paul says, through "a Spirit of adoption." As beloved children of God, we cry out "Abba!" and confess from the depths of our hearts that, as Deuteronomy says, the LORD is God, and there is no other.

The Sister of Our Lady of China 中華聖母傳教修女會

The Sisters of Our Lady of China is a Diocesan Religious Institute of Consecrated Life, dedicated to apostolic mission work. The late Cardinal Tien, S.V.D., the first Asian born Cardinal in the history of the Catholic Church, founded the community in 1940, in Shantung Province, China.

After the Second World War, the Sisters left Mainland China and resettled in Taiwan in 1952, in the Chiayi Diocese.

The Sisters of Our Lady of China are primarily interested in serving God's poor, sick, homeless and needy. The Community, as followers of Christ and His Blessed Mother, are active in the four-corners of the world.

They are engaged in pastoral care, education, healthcare, care of the aged and in serving in areas wherever the Bishops may call for help.

In Taiwan, The Sisters of Our Lady of China has established Chung Jen College of Nursing, Health Science and Management with over 2,000 students; St Martin De Porres Hospital with 1,000 in-patient beds, a 300-bed Nursing Home and the Home Care Group. They have won multiple awards for their innovative development models and quality services.

In December 1983, The Sisters of Our Lady of China established The Trustee of The Sisters of Our Lady of China in Australia and on the 1st of January 1984, gained ownership of Peakhurst Nursing Home (now renamed as Peakhurst Lodge).

Over the years, The Sisters of Our Lady of China has established itself as a preferred aged care service provider with strong business sustainability and long term viability.

Since 2004, we have undergone major transformation from a single facility operator with 71 high care beds, to a multi-facility operator with three modern facilities totaling 308 beds providing both low and high level care of high quality.

Our three fully accredited facilities provide high quality nursing and personal care and diversional activities to anyone requiring high care and low care nursing placement, regardless of race, religion, colour or creed.
